

TAKE THE STRESS AND CONFUSION OUT OF ORGANISING PARENTS' EVENING

PARENTS' EVENING BOOKING SYSTEM

Groupcall are delighted to offer schools this fantastic bolt-on to their award-winning, parental communication product, Groupcall Messenger. Parents' Evening Booking System is fully integrated with Messenger and your school's MIS.

The system has been created to make the process of booking parents' evening appointments much quicker and simpler to organise. The school is able to set up a new parents' evening event in minutes, enabling the parents to log in and book their own appointments at a time to suit them without relying on the students!

CUSTOMER TESTIMONIALS

"What a fantastic system for parents' evenings. Much better than asking my child to book my times."

"This is definitely the way forward for schools if they wish to engage with their parents and to give greater ownership to their parents with regards to pupil progress and achievement. The attendance rate for this event was very high and the positive comments from parents for the system were many."

"We love being able to make our parents' evening appointments at times that suit us from the comfort of our home."

BENEFITS:

Parents' Evening Booking System has many benefits:

Schools can set up simple or complex events in minutes

Parents are sent login instructions that are simple and easy to follow

Parents are in control of their own timetable and can select appointments to suit their schedule

Parents are able to suggest any relevant topics for discussion before they arrive at the event so that the teacher is prepared

The event runs more smoothly and reduces time that parents often spend waiting for their turn

The system is accessible via all modern devices including phones, tablets, laptops and desktop computers

No need for paper bookings

The automated booking wizard enables parents to book all of their appointments in one easy click

Teachers are able to control their availability

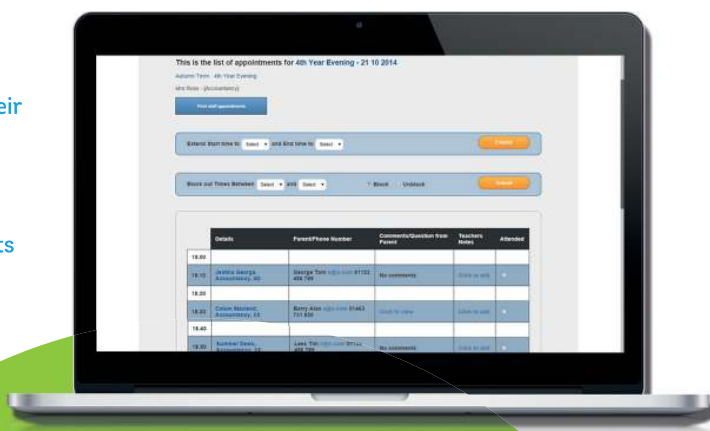

Teachers can send parents a message that will automatically appear when the parent logs in

Both parents and teachers are able to print off their appointment schedule at any time

Students no longer need to be relied upon to make the bookings which saves teaching time and errors
